

Here, you can see the video of the speech of the known Hellenist Pedro Olalla in the Conference of Classic Civilisation in the city Sagundo in Spain which explains the value of Greece and of the Greek language.

The speech was made by the known Greek Hellenist Pedro Olalla as a response to the proposal for the abolition of the teaching of the Greek language in the Spanish education system. While his support for the hellenism in the video is moving, at the same time his point of view exclude the nationalist approaches and encourages the viewers in a humanistic stance.

source: lifo.gr

span style=

span style=

span style=