

LaProf : LaProf is a Multilateral Project that aims to promote language awareness to immigrating workforces in two sectors: ICT and agriculture. Regarding agriculture, the project provides terminology and linguistic exercises to agricultural professionals living in Romania who want to move and work in Greece.

SUN.COM : SuN.Com is a multilateral project which will build sustainable social communities that will share and support teachers and learners of individual languages. Each community will be devoted to a single language. The communities will specifically focus on informal learning methodologies. The community will be originally developed for the learning of the Greek language and then it will be transferred to other less used European languages.
